In Which He Concedes McKinley's Nomination on First Ballot.

The Action of the National Committee in Seating McKinley Delegates Caused Him to Make the Statement-Reed Buttons and Badge Appear.

Sr. Louis, June 12.-Mr. J. H. Manley, of Maine, has been deluged Thursday with telegrams requesting him to explain or qualify his statement given to the United Press Wednesday, in which he conceded that Maj. McKinley would be nominated on the first ballot: but declared that Speaker Reed would remain in the field to a finish. Late Thursday afternoon the national committeeman from Maine furnished this signed statement to the United Press

'The action of the national committee at their meeting of Wednesday, showing clearly their intention of placing in the temporary roll delegates favorable to Gov. McKinley, which, in the end, would mean 160 additional votes, caused me to make the statement

"I am as earnestly for Mr. Reed as ever, and am, with his friends, doing everything possible to bring about his nomination, and I urge upon his supporters throughout the country to make still greater efforts in his be-Signed.

"J. H. MANLEY." An immense canvass picture of the speaker was placed in position in the rotunda of the parlor floor of the Southern Thursday afternoon. Reed buttons and badges are also making their appearance and there is every indication that his boom is to be given a renewed impetus.

The central figure among Thursda night's arrivals was Thos. C. Platt, o New York. He was accompanied by Chairman C. W. Hackett. The two dined hastily and without taking any rest the New York leader plunged into the work of showing that Morton was still in the race. Hon Chris Magee, o Pittsburgh, Pa., registered at the South ern and is the advance guard of the delegation.

A BUSY DAY.

The Rush of Bills Through Congress Gives the President Plenty of Work.

WASHINGTON, June 19 .- President Cleveland was a busy man Thursday, considering and signing bilts rushed to the white house from both houses of congress. His cabinet officers were with him to give advice on measursa connected with their several departments, and Private Secretary Thurber was also called into the hasty consultations necessary in each case. A number of bills were not signed and therefore failed to become laws. These and those approved will be announced from the white house Friday.

How soon the president will leave Washington for Gray Gables can not be ascertained. It was stated Thursdry at the white house that he had made no plans and that public busine-s would keep him here for some time at

Sharp Fluctuations in the Wheat Market. CHICAGO, June 12 .- Sudden and sharp fluctuations in the wheat market on the board of trade Thursday created wild excitement in the pit and traders had a crazy streak for the moment. There was a range of 814 cents in the ups and downs of July wheat. It sold off to 55%c, advanced to 58%c, broke to 561/c and closed at 57%c. The government report was responsible for the early break and the subsequent rally was due to manipulation. When the high point had been reached there was a drop of 25 c in less than two

SOUTHERN STATES.

The Basis of Their Representation To Be Changed.

St. Louis, June 12.-The republicanational committee will consider Fr day the proposition of reducing the basis of representation from the southern states. It will be remembered that four years ago Committeeman Payne of Wisconsin, and Scott, of West Virginia, agitated the same question at Minneapolis, the reason for doing it being that Harrison's big lead in the convention was due largely to the sup port of delegates from states that were unable to give the party a single electoral vote. If the committee decline to recommend the change the fight will be carried into the convention and hotly contested there. The plan of Scott, Payne and others is to have the southern states each seices four delegates-at-large and one district delegate from every distrect casting 7,000 republican votes. Most of the southern delegates will oppose vigorously the proposed change.

SHORT CONVENTION.

There is Talk of Finishing Up by Wednes-day Evening-A Great McKiniey Pa-

Sr. Louis, June 12.—There will be a grand McKinley parade on Wednesday night of next week. Gen. Howe, of Ohio, is to be grand marshal, and it is estimated that 20,000 men will be in line. All the Ohio men'will be in line and thousands of others.

It was not thought that the nominations would be made before next Thursday, but matters are shaping up so that it is already said to be quite probable that the convention will conlude its work by Wednesday evening. The visitors would be suited with this, out the local people object, as they want to keep the erowd on hand as ong as possible and make as much money out of it as possible. Whether the delegates, after the treatment given the colored portion of them, will consent to oblige the citizens is to be

MANLEY'S STATEMENT.

The Chairman of the Maine Delegation

Disagreeably Surprised. ROCKLAND, Me., June 12 .- Hon. C. E. Littletie d, chairman of the Maine delezation, when asked Thursday for his views of the situation with refermee to Mr. Man ev's statement that McKinley would be nominated, expressed himsef as very isagre ably surprised at the position aken by Mr. Manley. He' thought it an extraordinary thing for him to do, and said that it placed the delegates hat were still loyal to Mr. Reed in a st uncomfortable and embarrissing osition. The tendency of Mr. Manley's tatement would be to discourage Mr. Reed's friends and destroy any hance he might have for success. He coult see no occasion or excuse for such a statement by him at this time, unless its purpose was to aid Mr. Me-Kinley, and Mr. Manley was not understood to be devoting his time of late to that purpose.

"Do Nothing Session" of the Senate at an End.

The Last of the General Appropriation Bills Disposed Of.

Pension Granted to the Widow of Gen. Gibson, of Ohio-The Usual Resolution of Thanks Passed-The Upper House of Cougress Adjourns Sine Die.

WASHINGTON, June 12.-If the first session of the Fifty-fourth congress has been a "do nothing session," as had been predicted, the closing day of the senate furnished a fitting culmination to the session. It was a day of in active drifting, a laborious effort to kill time by doing nothing until four o'clock, when, according to the concurrent resolution agreed to on Wednesday, the two houses were to adjourn. The senate was call ed to order at 11 o'clock, when the Dis trict of Columbia appropriation bil was received and immediately signed by the vice president, thus disposing of the last of the general appropriation bills so far as the legislative branch was concerned. A bill was passed granting a pension to the widow of Gen. W. H. Gibson. of Ohio. The senate then drawled along until 1:20 o'clock, the only business transacted being the appointment of a committee to wait on the president and inform him that congress was ready to adjourn, and the appointment o another committee provided for in the District of Columbia appropriation bil to investigate the charitable and reformatory institutions in Washing-

At 1:20 a recess was taken until three o'clock, when the usual resolutions of thanks to the vice president and president pro tem, were offered by Senator Allison, of Iowa, and Harris, of Tennessee, respectively, and unanimously agreed to. The galleries were almost deserted during the early hours of the session, but knots of visitors continued to come slowly until the hour of adjournment, so that when that hour arrived and the vice president delivered his valedictory he had a good sized audience in the galleries, a large number of whom were ladies, even though there were but 25 senators present at that interesting moment. As the vice president uttered the last words and the gave fell for the last time there was a faint outburst of applause, after which senators gathered in knots in the aisles and before the vice president's desk bidding each other good-by. Then the senators on the floor and the visitors in the galleries melted away and the chamber which has been the scene of so many stirring incidents was left to the pages and attendants until the first Monday in December next.
